

QUALITY POLICY

American Center for Sustainable Certifications (ACSC) aims to provide professional, on-time, value added services related to third-party certification audit and public training.

We will strive to meet or exceed our customer's expectations by following our established policies and procedures, ensuring that continuous improvements exist in our organization and by meeting all customer, regulatory, statutory and accreditation body requirements.

Walter J. Bolt, CPG
President

January 20, 2020